Mother nature is everything, even we are a part of her , but we are destroying her from every angles, every second, Wildlife traditionally refers to undomesticated animal species, but has come to include all organisms that grow or live wild in an area without being introduced by humans. Wildlife was also synonymous to game: those birds and mammals that were hunted for sport. Wildlife can be found in all ecosystems. Even if we don't save it,we should not destroy it.

Poverty is not only a weakness for low-income families but it also represents the feebleness of a nation. In Indian streets we can always find these little champs selling small things and doing petty jobs. They are forced to crush their dream.. and sell away their happiness to put smile on us. This pic is a tribute to those kids.

HISTORICAL PLACE OF BURDWAN

Curzon Gate

The majestic Curzon Gate was famously erected in 1903, by the king of Burdwan Maharaja Bijoy Chand Mahatab to celebrate Lord Curzon's visit. Then Viceroy of India was invited to inaugurate the ceremonial gateway on March 1904. The former name of the gate was the 'Star of India' which was later changed. It is a prominent landmark in Bardhaman city in Purba Bardhaman district in West Bengal, India.

Though it is just an archway towering over the road, the majestic structure will easily grab your attention, especially at night. The Royal Palace is situated one km from the gate.

The gate arch is supported by eight circular columns. Three female figurines, with swords, boats, and sheaves of corn in their hands, on the arch signify progress in agriculture and commerce.

Captured by - Arpan Ganguly

Captured by - Ashirwad Dutta

The side arches are topped with statues of lions while the central arch is flanked on both sides with twin Corinthian columns.. There are twenty-one circles with twenty-one illustrations at the top portion of the gate. The gate also has its share of stucco work. The structure was constructed by masons from Italy.

Sarbamangala Temple

Captured by - Arpan Ganguly

This temple is highly respected by the local people of Burdwan. It is also believed that the Goddess fulfills every desire with a sincere heart. This temple is located on Sarvamangala Road. Sarvamangala is a different form of Goddess Durga. Another interesting feature of the temple is that the idol of the goddess and the surrounding temple was built decades later. The goddess was founded by King Kirti Chand in 1740 AD and the temple structure was built by King Mahatab Chand. From this point of view, the age of creation of this deity is two thousand five hundred years ago.

Captured by - Arpan Ganguly

Captured by - Arpan Ganguly

The idol of Mata Sarvamangala has been around (around 2500 years) since ancient times, people have felt its existence in old literature and holy books. It is a statue of Mother Durga with eighteen hands and is named "Mahishasurhamardini" and is the first Navratna temple in undivided Bengal. The structure of the temple has a unique blend of terracotta style paintings and the popular architecture of Bengal. Historians show its historical importance and the archeological value of the temple.

WRITINGS

Mohona Mukherjee

Sunset sky gets me high everytime,
Drunk kissing the sunrays, I'm feeling alive;
Heart afire and burning skin,
Its just the warm rays and me,
nothing in between.

Standing on the balcony with a glass
of champagne in my hand,
While I tried sorting my feelings, time slipped away like sand.
It's all a mess which can't be sorted out,
Even I don't understand what exactly this silent chaos of mine is about.

Now the moon is out, so bright yet dull,
My one and only spectator who saw me when I was the most vulnerable.
The moon playing hide and seek with the clouds like my feelings play with my mind,
Sometimes the hatred and rage
overpower my senses and makes me go blind.

Now most of the times I am numb,
Feelings are gone, the voices in my mind yelling "you are dumb!"
With a cigarette between my lips I stare,
Zoning out and drowning in despair.

How long will I be able to keep up
this act,
Acting as if nothing happened when everything is shattered for the matter of fact.
Sometimes tears cascade down my cheeks, while most of the times I scream inside,
Sometimes they coincide.

The cigarettes and champagne are now both gone,
It's time when i get tangled in sheets
and like always fall asleep alone.

Life is a beautiful and an unexpected journey don't let some small obstacles ruin it. Move forward in your life . If any bad things happen remember that it's just a bad day not a bad life. Everything happens for a reason,in your entire life their would be some bad things and some good things take the good things as an achievement and the bad things as a lesson. In this way you can move far away in your life.

Benison and Bane

On an evening cold,
My spirit I sold,
To nature who made me old
With paying me in teachings wrapped in pure gold.
On a day when daylight had tired of itself
I wanted to hang around with it and play mischief like an elf
With my mind in tow, which was earlier
left on my favourite shelf
And I waited too long but it all came to an end for the charm was limited till midnight... till twelve.
And I tried many a way
To let my spirit freely sway
But the time never arrived as it had just drifted away
And I realised in dismay
That it was finally the end of day.
So what I learnt and what I did gain
Was measured in joy, was weighed against pain,
And at the end of the cliff I stood realising that the wait had always been in vain,
And finally the confusions left shadowed demarcations between benison and bane.

শেষের কবিতা

নির্ঘূম রাত আমার পেরিয়ে যায় ,
হয় অনুত্তাপ ,
তাকে শেষের কবিতা টা আর বলিনি !!!!

নিষ্ঠক, নিঃসঙ্গ বৃষ্টি গুলো , আজও
অপেক্ষায়
শুধু একটু মিথ্যা আনন্দ , যদি আবার দেয়
ডাক

তোমার চোখের অভিমান আর অধিকারবোধ
আমার খারাপ লাগতো না ,
কিন্তু গহীন রাতের শেষে, যখন যখন ক্লান্ত
চোখে নামে ঘুম
দীর্ঘশ্বাস গুলো আরো বেড়ে যায় |

শেখের ফুল দানি টা যত্ন করার ইচ্ছা ছিলো খুব

ইচ্ছে ছিলো রঙিন ফুল দিয়ে সাজিয়ে রাখবো
।

কিন্তু একটু ভূলের জন্য,
সেই ফুলদানি আজ গেছে হারিয়ে ,
নষ্ট হয়েছে অনেক ছোটো গল্ল!!!
জোড়া লাগাতে গেলেও
শেষের কবিতা আর বলা হলো না ।

আগে ফোনের রিংটোন বাজলেই , যখন
তোমার নাম ডেসে উঠতো ,
মনে ভিড় করতো হাজার উত্তেজনা !!!
কিন্তু লুকোচুরি কথার ভিড়ে যখন হারাতাম
দুজনে

আমার শেষের কবিতা আর বলা হতো না ,
আবার অপেক্ষা করতাম , প্রথম থেকে সেই
প্রহরের জন্য ।

ভিড় বাসের লাস্ট সিটে , ফিরতাম যখন বাঢ়ি
, কংক্রিটের এই মিথ্যা জঙ্গাল শহরে ,
হয়ে যেত দম বন্ধ ॥
কিন্তু তোমার প্রাণখোলা হাসিতে,
সব ক্লান্তি যেনো হয়ে যেত শেষ।

আমার মন খারাপ এর রাতে ,
রাত জাগা ধ্বনি তারা হয়ে এসেছিলে তুমি।

আমি বুঝিনি ,আমি ছিলাম তোমার গল্লের
একটা সামান্য চরিত্র
ভয় পেয়েছিলাম , আমার শেষের কবিতা যদি
তোমায় করি উপহার
তুমি বুঝবে তো!!!!????

ভুল টা হয়তো ছিলো সময়ের !
কলেজের শেষ দিন, ভাবলাম
আজকে তোমায় আমার কবিতা নিবেদন
করবো ,
কিন্তু যখন দেখলাম তুমি তোমার গল্লে
অনুরাগের ছোঁয়া বদলেছ,
আমি বলিনি !!
আমার হাতে তখন ডায়েরির ছেঁড়া পাতা, বৃষ্টি
তে ভিজে নষ্ট হয়ে গেছে
তুমি তখন নতুন করে ভিজছো।
আমার শেষের কবিতা তোমায় দিতে
পারিনি....

ঠিক চার বছর পর,
ডেজা রাস্তায় , সেই লোক শূন্য বাস স্ট্যান্ড এ
আমার চোখ আজও খুঁজে বেড়ায় তোমাকে ।
কিন্তু যখন ভির বাসে চোখাচোখি হয় আবার
আমার শেষের কবিতা তোমাকে বলা হয়ে
ওঠেনা
ভয় !? এক অসীম বিরহের এবং পুরনো
ব্যথার !!!।

All the encompassing viridity in me
 Has somehow made me to forget the affinity
 Was this really supposed to be ensued
 Or it was just me who screwed
 Weren't we on the same chapter
 Or
 it was you to skip the vector ...

The abendrot doesn't leave me in remorse
 Rather brings vehemence aboard
 Are you the same i knew decades back
 Because I see a differently in contrast

I tried acclimating with the fact ,
 You aren't the same i wondered
 Nevertheless forgot,
 Sometimes the clouds always rain
 after a heartbreak of thunder ...

I wrote our story with a non permanent ink
 Never knew the story was actually gonna be non permanent
 Things in life never fall in places like we want
 But you were definitely the one I wanted

I'm happy
 I'm happy being with you fictiously
 We dance and swirl
 We twitch and twirl
 I love how we spend every moment together in this World
 Amongst the rainy days till the fendi nights
 My love for you nevertheless is like the lights
 Never dim and forever shiny
 With a lil pinch of a overland journey..

I am a tree

Last night I saw a dream
 It was a huge tree with lots of leaves
 Each one of them was pride and power
 They had a lot of light to devour

I was happy with those leaves
 They would hide all the darkness underneath
 And glisten brightly under the morning sun
 Each of them different, knots of beauty undone.

But soon there came the others
 New trees with feathers
 Light, elegant, and able to fly
 It was the only one stuck behind.

So it chose to lose all its leaves
 Or I suppose, it was me who chose
 For I was the tree, with my emotions gone
 I hoped for new feathers to grow
 So even I can go with the flow
 Of the wind, of the time
 Those leaves weren't as beautiful
 They were almost beslimed.

I waited, and it didn't happen
 No more leaves grew on me
 It wasn't a dream anymore
 It was reality.
 I feel naked and hollow
 Hard to dive yet shallow.
 I was a failure
 In flying or in being myself.
 I drowned that night
 In the soothing rain.

A Visit to Changthang Region of Ladakh:

We started early morning from nubra valley to reach pangong lake via shayok Road .It took six hours to reach there . Pangong lake is situated on 4350 meters i.e. 14270 FT approx. It was an amazing feeling when the pangong lake was visible for the first time to us under the blue sky and in the lap of snow clad mountains. The colour of the lake water was as deep blue as ink in the blue ink pot .

We reached Lukung and took a halt . Exactly four colours of Lake was clearly visible from our car. Sea green, sky blue, deep blue and greyish pink . That view made me spellbound for some time . Almost till 6.30 I enjoyed the colour change of the lake . After this we moved towards Our tent which was at spangmik village just nearby the bank of Pangong Tso. That night was chilly and freezing . We had our dinner by 8.30 PM and went to bed with the mindset that next morning will wake up early to witness the colour change of the lake .

I woke up at 5.30 AM next morning, just removed the curtain of our tent window and saw the light blue colour of pangong lake .There was no-one near the shore. I came out from the tent to enjoy the morning view, it was so clam and refreshing that couldn't be explain in words. I took a deep breathe and lost in the beauty of nature. I was excited, as for the next few days I will spend like this, exploring the new places in this wonderland , and enjoying the magnificent landscapes.

After enjoying the stunning view for some more time, I got back to tent to pack our bags .We had plan to visit Tsomoriri on the same day and it's a long 260 kilometers journey from pangong.

I packed my luggage and came outside the tent and got amazed with the colour of the lake .Within a matter of 35 to 40 minutes, the colour of the lake was almost pink from one side and deep blue from the other . And the middle of the lake was turquoise Blue. We started walking towards the lake, it took 10 minutes to reach near the lake . Sat there for hours to witness to the beautiful lake with it's frequently changing colours according to the Sun's position in the Sky . Probably that colour change is due to the sun light reflection from the hills. Lake lies in the lap of colourful mountains like brown , yellow, white pink etc. We didn't want to get back from there, but as we had a long journey plan on that day, we had to leave that amazing place .

We started for tsomoriri via Man-Merak-Chusul-Tsaga La road .We choose this road because this road runs along the shoreline of Pangong Lake till chusul and the road is very scenic. This road is considered to be one of the remotest route of Ladakh. We left spangmik and started our journey towards Man,Merak . Beauty of those two villages are unexplainable. A less number of tents and tourists were there . We took a halt at Merak and it was such a heavenly place . Merak seems more beautiful than Spangmik and less crowded as well.

We asked our driver to stop the car at Merak , We spotted a place near shore of deep blue pangong lake. we all came down from the car .I moved a bit far from my group . Omg! that place was really a bliss of solitude. I wanted to seat there for long and just doing nothing. My insignificant seemed even more insignificant to those big mountains , pristine blue water lake . After spending some time there and photo session also we returned to our car.

On our first two hours of journey pangong lake was visible on our left side in turquoise Blue, deep blue, light pink colour . Pangong Lake takes a turn towards China just before sometime to reach chusul and was not visible after a certain point.

After reaching chusul we took a break to visit Rezang La war memorial . Rezang La is mountain pass located on the line of actual control (LAC) between India administrated Ladakh and Chinese administrated Spanggur Lake . These pass is located in chusul valley .In 1962, China acquire Rezang La pass and a company of 124 Indian soldiers fought against Chinese soldiers. The company was led by major Saitan Singh, who won a Posthumous Paramvir Chakra for his contribution. China declared ceasefire after watching the bravery of Indian soldiers in this battle. One side of that war memorial is India and China on the other. We were very close to the China that time . And Chinese bunkers were clearly visible from the road . All the circumstances gave me goosebumps and I felt immensely proud to see the Indian flag was flying in its own glory in the mid of big colourful mountains.

After Chusul we observed a different landscape. It was quite different in comparison to Man Merak Pangong road . There were no particular roads after Merak . Our car was running in the mid of a vast valley. Here and there greenries and grass lands were observed. And Pashmina goats , Kiyang (Tibetan Ash) , and other wild animals were seen everywhere in the green fields. A turquoise blue water river was flowing along with us .Our driver also can't recall the name of that river. Some times our car was running on the mid of green field , some time on the white sand desert. Vivid colours of mountains were visible all around like white , pink, brown, yellow even on a greenish shade also . Sun light reflection on those colorful mountains made that whole place heavenly. We entered at the Changthang plateau of Ladakh which is considered to be the nomad region of Ladakh. And obviously this area is less explored and much beautiful also . And we watched hardly any other vehicles except our car on that route.

After chusul we reached Loma bend . From Loma bend a road takes turn towards the Hanle village which has the worlds highest observatory. At night millions of starts and milkyways can be observed in naked eyes from Hanle village. It also has wonderful landscapes . Due to lack of time it was out of our plan and we enroute our journey towards Tsomoriri via Nyoma-Mahe-Sumdo.We reached Sumdo at around 6PM and took a tea break in a small shop. Sumdo is around fifty kilometers from Tsomoriri. It was very cold and windy there.

EXPLORATIONS

The small shop was inside a tent ,which is just mid of a grassland and there was a narrow stream flowing just beside the shop. Wild animals like Tibetan Kiyang, Yak, Pashmina goats were grazing there.

We were not able to stand beside the shop for much time because of chilly wind. After Sumdo before heading to Korzok Village,Tsomoriri on the way we saw another small decent lake TSO-Kiyagar. Not many people know about Kiyagar TSO and only discover it on their way to Tsomoriri. But I had research about the lake and asked our driver to halt there. It is very small in comparison with Pangong, Tsomoriri but heavenly beautiful. It can be spotted from its turquoise green colour. As we get closer to the lake we noticed salt deposits on its bank. It was too pretty for words. We were at Tso Kiyagar for fifteen to twenty minutes .

Reaching Korzok village took almost twenty-twenty five minutes from Tso Kiyagar. Korzok village is the nearest settlement of Tsomoriri Lake, Which is probably the highest permanent settlement in India. Our car was heading towards the Korzok village by side of the Tsomoriri Lake. We reached Tsomoriri at around 6.45 PM. Due to lack of sun light water colour of the lake looks light blue. Almost we drive for half an hour by side of the lake and reached our hotel. It was freezing temperature there at that time .

We checked-in to the hotel , after freshen up and dinner went to bed early as we planned for next morning sunrise in Tsomoriri at 5AM. Next morning we woke up by chirping of birds. That sound was music to my ears. We removed the curtains of our room and became surprised with the beauty of outside window.

Pristine turquoise blue coloured lake was surrounded by snowcapped mountains. A lush green pasture was there till bank of tsomoriri. Local animals were grazing there and many unknown species of colourful birds were chirping . A few villagers were cultivating in their land near the shore of Tsomoriri in that chilly morning.

It was a lesson of hard work and commitment from those local villagers; that in so harsh weather condition, how they are struggling to live with some basic facilities only.

We came outside from our hotel and started walking to the bank of tsomoriri and sat there for an hour almost. Lake water was with combination of pink , turquoise blue and deep blue.

Green pasture all around the lake Tsomoriri made it much beautiful than Pangong . Korzok village gives an amazing experience of local habitant's life and their culture.

We enjoyed the view of Tsomoriri till almost 11.30 PM that day and then returned to Leh via Chumathang . Our Ladakh trip was coming to an end and I was started feeling nostalgic from then . I was also feeling immensely satisfied inside by heart to be witnessed the wonderful landscapes. We were returning home with the promise to visit Ladakh again in near future and will try to explore the other unexplored areas.

"Listen what your soul commands", has a universal accord amongst every seeker of the self.

But what often we go on to ignore is the rust within our souls which need hours in friction with the sand paper. The soul needs an adjustment with the conscience in order to stand congruent with this "listen to your heart" notion. A bit of "rub off the rubbish" is quite expected.

Just because we are blind to every advice..we have got one mouth to speak infinite but two ears to perceive less(thats more human today) and one foolish grey matter to persist upon.

This ignorance of the human soul has crossed the fence of true realisation. Like whatever our soul wants, we move on with it. But is that really what the atma seeks?

Well, not at all.

We are foolish enough to abide by another fool, the human brain.

Tis the human brain which the slave of Agyana and we turn out to be the slaves of the brain and serve a "visionless" wise population.

And then we seek for motivation. Psychological sublimation.

Saints come and go.

They say, "Follow your soul", " Follow all that is the heart's desire."

And we follow it. And we don't follow it

Suppose my soul says, "I feel like chilling".

I do go for it.

But I did not listen to my soul here.

It is this that I call, "foolishly abiding by the fool.

It is this foolish grey matter that says, "Look! This is what the soul actually wants. "Though not actually so
And then. ."

The Inward theatre plays.

Emotions and hormones follow.

And we are like, " Let us do this. " But ultimately we appease the brain and not the soul.

"My soul tells me to take Sanyas"

"My soul tells me to love someone"

"My soul tells me to worship god"

"My soul tells me to score good marks"

And my brain plays the nitwit by aping the voice of the soul

We do solemnly follow it. And we are following it.

Now the question may arise, "What next to do?"

Well, to make your soul speak or to prevent your brain from imitating the soul and enlighten you in wasted doings..you need to learn how to communicate with it..

PETITION

It's my petition
 It's our petition
 Because we all own it
 And it's often not mentioned

We all own our own Skies
 We can share it
 With someone else's
 But we can't take over it
 No we can't
 Nobody can
 Because it's their Sky
 Not ours
 We have our own
 We must preserve and paint that

Not everyone's sky is blue
 For some it's Pink
 It can be Red, White, Yellow
 Anything they themselves want it to be
 It might not be according to our desire
 But it's beautiful
 Because it's theirs, their own
 We can't decide the color of their sky
 No we can't
 Nobody can
 We have our own
 We must preserve and paint that

In love,
 We find company, strength,
 We find comfort and health
 We mention respect
 But we don't find it
 We don't
 Love is sharing
 Not taking over someone else's
 It's a small world
 That we all create for ourselves
 We can share it
 If we want
 But we cannot let someone take over it
 Neither should we do it

No

It's not about money, race or stress
 It's not about family, friend or success
 It's not a request, wish or command
 It's a petition
 Mine, Yours and Everyone's
 To Respect
 To Respect
 To Respect

An unsolved mystery

Well after so many nos,
 I fall for you without knowing
 I don't believe in Love at first Sight
 But yes for you I did and I fall for you.
 Going down the memory lane
 Searching for excuses ,
 And drowning in your eyes for seconds,
 Though you were not aware
 But I knew that my heart was falling for you!
 Which I can't confess,
 Cause fear of loosing you.
 But yes with or without my conscience
 I committed that mistake
 Falling for you again and again,
 Mustering up the courage to
 Have a good fight with one own self
 Over the only reason LOVE.
 Sometimes thinking of the day ,
 When you're leaving me
 Foolish me !
 Still my soul was waiting to love you
 And I confessed, "My love"!!!

মিডলবেঞ্চার

আমি একজন মিডলবেঞ্চার,
না না , আমি ক্লাসে প্রথম সারিতে বসি
কিন্তু তবুও আমি মিডলবেঞ্চার।

ক্লাসে টপ করার চেষ্টা করি ,
তবে ব্রেকে একটা জোক্য পড়তে দম ফাটানো
হাসি হাসতে দুবার ভাবিনা।
কারণ আমি মিডলবেঞ্চার তাই !

ক্লাসে কোনো প্রশ্নের উত্তর দিতে হাত আমিও
তুলি,
জানি কিছু চোখ জোড়া চেয়ে থাকে ,
আমি আজও বুঝতে পারিনা ,
সেই চোখের গভীরতায় কি আমার জন্য
উৎসাহ আছে??
নাকি সবার চোখে অন্তুত কৌতুক !!
বুঝতে পারিনা , দ্বিধায় থাকি
কারণ আমি মিডলবেঞ্চার , তাই !!!

ঘন্টার পর ঘন্টা এক জায়গায় বসে থাকতে
বিরক্ত আমারও বিরক্ত লাগে ,
তবে বেলা শেষে মেঘলা আকাশ জড়ানো
ভেজা হাওয়া তে ক্লান্তি খানা হারিয়ে যায় ,
আমারও ইচ্ছে করে , দুহাত ছড়িয়ে বৃষ্টি তে
ভিজতে!
কিন্তু পারিনা ,
কারণ কোথাও মাঝখানে আটকে যাওয়া
আমি একজন মিডলবেঞ্চার তাই আর কি !!!

পরিশ্রম মোটামুটি করি ,
এবং ভিড়ে মেশার চেষ্টা করি
তবে চেনা ভিড়ের মধ্যে , এখনও নিজেকে
অচেনা লাগে ,
কারণ অনেকে আমায় চেনেনা ,
বোধয় চেনার দরকার পড়েনি ।
লাস্ট বেঞ্চে যারা বসে , গোটা ক্লাসের
খোশমেজাজ
তারাই বজায় রাখে ,
এবং ক্লাসের প্রথম সারিতে যারা বসে , তারা
বজায় রাখে ক্লাসের সম্মান ,
এই একদম ভাববেন না এটা আমি বলি ,
এরকম কথা তেনারা বলেন ,
আমি ত কেবল দর্শক!!
ওই যে বললাম , মিডলবেঞ্চার , তাই আর কি!

সঙ্গে নামার পরে , যখন ভেজা রাস্তায় হাটতে
থাকি

আমি বন্ধুদের সাথে রাস্তায় যেতে হই- ছল্লোড়
করিনা

এবং একা থাকলে ভবিষ্যতের গঞ্জে ভাবিনা।
এমনি আর কি ! ভেজা মাটির ঘ্রাণ নাকে নিয়ে
নিজের গোটাদিনের ব্যস্ততার গঞ্জ গুলো

নিজের সাথে করিব।

মন্দ লাগেনা !!!

কেউ তো আছে যাকে নিজের গঞ্জ বলবো
আর যাইহোক! সে আমাকে বিচার করেনা!!!
অথবা আমার গঞ্জে বিরক্ত হয়না ,
ওই আর কি , সাময়িক ভালোলাগাণ!!!!

রাতের অন্ধকারে

যখন নিকোটিনের কড়া ধোঁয়া কে উন্মুক্ত
করি,

আমি হিসেব করতে ভুলে যাই , যে আমি
কোন দলে!

সবার সম্মানিত প্রথম সারির দলে ,
নাকি সেই দলে , যারা সবাইকে হই ছল্লোড়
করে মাতিয়ে রাখে !

কোথাও গিয়ে ইচ্ছে আমারও জাগে ,
আমিও মেলবো ডানা , থাকবেনা কোনো
মানা।

উঠবে রামধনু এই আকাশে !!!
